

APPENDIX 2

Parent's Response Regarding Release of Student Information

According to the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and the Texas Public Information Act (TPIA), certain information about students is considered "directory information" and will be released to anyone who follows the procedures for requesting the information, unless the parent or guardian objects to the release of the directory information about the student.

If you do not want Edgewood ISD to disclose directory information from your child's records, you must notify the district in writing within ten (10) school days of child's first day of instruction for this school year.

The district is providing you this form so you can communicate your wishes about these issues.
