

- Literacy
 - Universal screener training.
 - Extended-day professional development focused around universal screener data and literacy best practices.
- Curriculum Implementation and Instructional Delivery
 - Pacing guides, planning guides, digital resource collections, Instructional Coach support, campus or network wide professional development.
 - Extensive and dedicated Instructional Coach support, visits by Curriculum Officers and Directors, visits by executive leadership and central-office stakeholders.
- Formative Assessment and Data Protocols
 - Five-year longitudinal data sets, comprehensive calendar, and toolkit for data protocols.
 - Leaders trained together on data protocols; data is a extended-day professional development focus area.
- Cognitive Demand
 - National Math and Science Institute training and, personalized learning resources.
- High Quality Professional Development
 - Extensive and dedicated Instructional Coach support, Communities of Practice visits, Wednesday extended-day professional development.
- Curriculum alignment between grade-level standards and student needs
 - Curriculum resources and formative assessment resources, personalized learning supports, digital resources and just-right text.
 - Dedicated time during Wednesday professional development sessions focused on data protocols, curriculum planning and implementation, student work samples, and literacy and content best practices; teachers will have explicit opportunities to consider the most effective ways to reach students who may have gaps or strengths above or below grade level.